

High Risk Building Mitigation Cell (HRBMC)

High Risk Building Mitigation Cell (HRBMC) functions to make aware the owners/ occupiers of the High-Risk buildings regarding the structural safety of their premises in the event of Earth Quake and also give clarification to the queries, facilitation and general guidance etc.

1) The designation and contact details of the members of HRBMC are as under:

Sr. No.	Designation	Phone No	E-Mail
1	Chief Engineer (Civil-II)	23341521	cecivil-2@ndmcmil.gov.in
2	Chief Architect	23363163	chief.architect@ndmc.gov.in
3	Chief Fire Officer	23366633	fire.officer@ndmc.gov.in
4	Executive Engineer (Design)	23362597	exen.design@ndmc.gov.in

The jurisdiction of the above listed officials is as under:-

- I. For all private buildings and government buildings in NDMC area (other than pertaining to NDMC), the information may be obtained from Chief Architect-NDMC.
 - II. For all NDMC buildings maintained by Civil Engineering Department of NDMC the information may be obtained from Chief Engineer (Civil-II).
 - III. For fire safety issues, the information may be obtained from Chief Fire Officer.
- 2) List of structural Engineers empanelled by Delhi Municipal Corporation may be used by owners/ occupiers of the properties in NDMC area for obtaining services of any of the listed structural engineer; and the following web link may be used for the purpose: mcdonline.gov.in/eodb/ → downloads → empanelled-structural engineers.
- 3) Seismic Hazard Microzonation Map of NCT Delhi published by Nation Centre for seismology, Ministry of Earth Sciences, Government of India in their report of year 2015 is as under:

