3. Brief History of the Project:

The Competent Authority NDMC, approved Liberalized Medical Health Scheme for working employees/pensioners and their dependents on CGHS rules & rates with private hospitals. In the first stage NDMC, empanelled Max Group of Hospitals & Batra Hospital & thereafter from time to time NDMC empanelled more hospitals in Delhi & NCR. This proposal was approved by the Council vide Reso. No. 04(K-1) dated 31/05/2007, whereby the CGHS rates +5% was allowed to the Max Group of Hospitals for the treatments/test ect. mentioned in the CGHS list and a rebate of 35% over the Hospital treatment rates. But subsequently vide Reso. No. 27 (K-6) dated 19/12/2007, this rebate was removed for Max Group of Hospitals. Various hospitals were empanelled from time to time till 2012. In 2013 the it was observed that Medical reimbursement has gone very high & it was decided that this condition of 5% extra rates to Max Hospital be waived off for which Max Group of Hospitals but they did not agree. NDMC adopted CGHS pattern & invited Hospitals which were empanelled with CGHS on CGHS Terms & Conditions. The Hospitals which agreed, were/are empanelled. However one Non CGHS Hospital (Fortis Jassa Ram, Karol Bagh) was also empanelled because of its vicinity with NDMC boundaries as it agreed on CGHS terms & conditions.

L.W.O.

Recently some of the hospitals were de-empanelled by NDMC because these were removed from the panel by CGHS. Two Hospitals viz. Sanjeevan Medical Research Centre Pvt. Ltd. 24-Ansari Road Darya Ganj, and Jeevan Anmol Hospital Mayur Vihar represented against the de-empanelment and requested that they are interested in continuing with NDMC on CGHS terms and conditions. Dr. Prem Aggarwal, Director Sanjeevan Medical Research Centre Pvt. Ltd has informed that he is not interested in continuing with CGHS but the hospital is empanelled with DGEHS. Dr. J.C. Sondhi, Chairman of Jeevan Anmol Hospital Mayur Vihar has informed that their hospital has been removed from the panel of CGHS due to a transcription error, which will be rectified soon. He has also informed that Jeevan Anmol Hospital Mayur Vihar is empanelled with DGEHS.
