

1. Teacher's feedback for training session

Teachers have appreciated the training given by renowned professors of NCERT/SCERT. They have also appreciated the contents of the training primarily on National Education Policy (NEP) 2020 and subject enrichment. They have given positive feedback on interactive methodology of teaching. They have suggested that training session to be held frequently and in small groups to participate actively in all the activities organized by resource persons.